Persons who are not resident in the United Kingdom or who are subject to the laws of other jurisdictions should inform themselves of, and observe, any applicable legal, regulatory or other requirements of their jurisdictions. In particular, the ability of persons who are not resident in the United Kingdom or who are subject to the laws of another jurisdiction to participate in the Acquisition may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdictions in which they are located or to which they are subject. Notice to US FD Technologies Shareholders

The Acquisition relates to the shares of a Northern Irish company and is being made by means of a scheme of arrangement provided for under the laws of Northern Ireland. A transaction effected by means of a scheme of arrangement is not subject to the tender offer or the proxy solicitation rules under the US Exchange Act. Accordingly, the Acquisition is subject to the disclosure and procedural requirements and practices applicable in the UK to schemes of arrangement, which differ from the disclosure requirements of the US tender offer and proxy solicitation rules. The financial information included in the Scheme Document (or, if the Acquisition is implemented by way of a Takeover Offer, the offer document) has been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles of the UK and thus may not be comparable to the financial information of US companies or companies whose financial statements are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. Each FD Technologies Shareholder is urged to consult its independent professional adviser immediately regarding the tax consequences to it (or to its beneficial owners) of the Acquisition.

The Rollover Securities issued under the Alternative Offer have not been, and will not be, registered under the US Securities Act or under the relevant securities laws of any state or territory or other jurisdiction of the United States, will not be listed on any stock exchange in the United States and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an available exemption from, or a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of under the US Securities Act. To the extent Bidco effects the Alternative Offer as a scheme of arrangement under the laws of Northern Ireland, the Rollover Securities will be issued in reliance upon the exemption from the registration requirements of the US Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) thereof ("Section 3(a)(10)"). Section 3(a)(10) exempts securities issued in specified exchange transactions from the registration requirements of the US Securities Act where, among other things, the fairness of the terms and conditions of the issuance and exchange of such securities have been approved by a court or governmental authority expressly authorised by law to grant such approval, after a hearing upon the fairness of the terms and conditions of the exchange at which all persons to whom the Rollover Securities are proposed to be issued have the right to appear and receive adequate and timely notice thereof.

Where Bidco believes that an election for the Alternative Offer by any FD Technologies Shareholder may infringe applicable legal or regulatory requirements, or may result in a requirement for a registration under the US Securities Act, US Exchange Act or any other securities laws in the United States, Bidco will have the right to deem that such FD Technologies Shareholder has not elected for the Alternative Offer and such FD Technologies

Shareholder will instead receive cash consideration in respect of the FD Technologies Shares which were subject to such an election in accordance with the terms of the Cash Offer.

Following the Scheme becoming effective and except with the approval of Topco, the Rollover Shares may not be offered, sold, resold, taken up, delivered or transferred, directly or indirectly, in or into the United States or to or for the account or benefit of any person believed to be a US Person, or in any other manner whatsoever, as a result of which a registration under the US Securities Act or the US Exchange Act would be required. Any transfer of Rollover Shares to a US Holder shall require the approval of Topco.

If, in the future, Bidco exercises its right to implement the Acquisition by means of a Takeover Offer (with the consent of the Panel and subject to and in accordance with the terms of the Co-operation Agreement) which is to be made into the United States, such a Takeover Offer will be made in compliance with all applicable US laws and regulations, including any applicable exemptions under the US Exchange Act, and, in respect of the issuance of Rollover Securities, pursuant to exemptions from, or in transactions not subject to, the registration requirements under the US Securities Act. Such a Takeover Offer would be made in the United States by Bidco and no one else.

An FD Technologies Shareholder who is an "affiliate" (within the meaning of the US Securities Act) of the FD Technologies Group prior to or after the Effective Date who receives Rollover Securities, will receive "restricted securities" as defined in Rule 144 under the US Securities Act. Under applicable US federal securities laws, persons who are or will be "affiliates" of the FD Technologies Group, within the meaning of the US Securities Act may not resell the Rollover Securities received as a result of the Alternative Offer without registration under the US Securities Act, except pursuant to the applicable resale provisions of Rule 144 under the US Securities Act or another applicable exemption from registration or in a transaction not subject to registration (including a transaction that satisfies the applicable requirements of Regulation S under the US Securities Act). Whether a person is an affiliate of a company for purposes of the US Securities Act depends on the circumstances, but affiliates can include certain officers, directors and significant shareholders. Persons who believe they may be affiliates of FD Technologies should consult their own legal advisers before any sale of securities received in the Alternative Offer.

Neither the US Securities and Exchange Commission nor any US state securities commission has approved or disapproved or passed judgement upon the fairness or the merits of the Alternative Offer or determined if the Scheme Document is adequate, accurate or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the US. The receipt of cash consideration by a US FD Technologies Shareholder as consideration for the transfer of its FD Technologies Shares pursuant to the Acquisition may be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes and may also be a taxable transaction under applicable state and local tax laws, as well as non-US and other tax laws. The Rollover Mechanism may allow Rollover Shareholders who are U.S. persons to roll their equity in FD Technologies into Rollover Shares on a tax-deferred basis for U.S. tax purposes, however, no guarantee can be provided that such treatment will be achieved. Each US FD Technologies Shareholder is urged to consult its independent professional tax adviser immediately regarding the tax consequences of the Acquisition (including the Alternative Offer) applicable to them, including under applicable United States and local, as well as overseas and other, tax laws.

In the event that the Acquisition is implemented by way of a Takeover Offer (with the consent of the Panel and subject to and in accordance with the terms of the Co-operation Agreement), in accordance with normal UK practice and pursuant to Rule 14e-5(b), Bidco or its nominees, or its brokers (acting as agents), may from time to time make certain purchases of, or arrangements to purchase, shares or other securities of FD Technologies outside of the US, other than pursuant to such a Takeover Offer, during the period in which such a Takeover Offer would remain open for acceptances. These purchases may occur either in the open market at prevailing prices or in private transactions at negotiated prices. Any information about such purchases or arrangements to purchase shall be disclosed as required in the UK, shall be reported to a Regulatory Information Service and shall be available on the London Stock Exchange website at www.londonstockexchange.com.

FD Technologies and Bidco are both incorporated under the laws of Northern Ireland. Some or all of the officers and directors of FD Technologies and Bidco, respectively, are residents of countries other than the United States. In addition, some or all of the assets of FD Technologies and Bidco are or may be located in jurisdictions outside of the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for US holders of FD Technologies Shares to enforce their rights and any claim arising out of the US federal laws or to enforce against them a judgment of a US court predicated upon the federal and state securities laws of the United States. US holders of Scheme Shares may not be able to sue a non-US company or its officers or directors in a non-US court for violations of the US securities laws. Further, it may be difficult to compel a non-US company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a US court's judgment.

The statements contained in the Scheme Document are made as at the date of the Scheme Document, unless some other time is specified in relation to them, and service of the Scheme Document shall not give rise to any implication that there has been no change in the facts set forth in the Scheme Document since such date. Nothing in the Scheme Document shall be deemed to be a forecast, projection or estimate of the future financial performance of FD Technologies, the FD Technologies Group, Bidco or the Bidco Group, except where otherwise stated.

Disclosure requirements of the Takeover Code

Under Rule 8.3(a) of the Takeover Code, any person who is interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make an Opening Position Disclosure following the commencement of the offer period and, if later, following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). An Opening Position Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(a) of the Takeover Code applies must be made by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the tenth Business Day following the commencement of the offer period and, if appropriate, by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the tenth Business Day following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. Relevant persons who deal in the relevant securities of the offeree company or of a securities exchange offeror before the deadline for making an Opening Position Disclosure must instead make a Dealing Disclosure.

Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Takeover Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror, save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8 of the Takeover Code. A Dealing Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) of the Takeover Code applies must be made by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the Business Day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3 of the Takeover Code.

Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4 of the Takeover Code).

Details of the offeree and offeror companies in respect of whose relevant securities Opening Position Disclosures and Dealing Disclosures must be made can be found in the Disclosure Table on the Panel's website at www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk, including details of the number of relevant securities in issue, when the offer period commenced and when any offeror was first identified. If you are in any doubt as to whether you are required to make an Opening Position Disclosure or a Dealing Disclosure, you should contact the Panel's Market Surveillance Unit on +44 (0) 207 638 0129.

In this summary of certain disclosure requirements of the Takeover Code, Business Day has the meaning given to it in the Takeover Code.
